"Go and Do Likewise."

"I think there's something refreshing and honest and real about the words "go and do likewise." They are like a door flung open in the winter—ushering cold, brisk gospel air into the stuffy, warm house of cultural Christianity. They wake me up. He wants me to get caught up in God's work all around me. He wants me to be, in a word, missional." - Don Everts

- Gathering to scatter is to be a regular rhythm of the Christ-follower's life; it's like the inhale & exhale of breathing.

How Do We Live On Mission?

- One way is to live a life that evokes curiosity.
- "It's a Sacramental Christian Vocation to intrigue others."
- Michael Frost
